Round 3 Off to the pub!

Inside your pack is everything you need to market your Quid's in Pub Quiz for Guide Dogs.

Use your posters and set up a Facebook event and invite all your friends and family. You can also ask your pub to advertise your event on their social media pages, chalk boards and around the pub. We recommend advertising at least 2-3 weeks before the night.

Once you have composed your optional extra rounds, and advertised your event you are ready to rock to the mic on quiz night!
