The first steps

Daisy is a confident puppy

SPONSOR A PUPPY

Hello, I'm Concetta! My husband, Mario, and I are Daisy's Puppy Walkers. Welcome to her first Pupdate!

We couldn't be happier to welcome Daisy into our home! She will be living with us for around a year and together we will help her develop basic obedience skills and introduce her to lots of new environments. Although she is on the petite side, she is fearless and courageous!

Sociable girl

Daisy settled in with us quickly and is very well behaved in the house, always taking a snooze at any opportunity! She is learning different commands such as 'sit' and 'down'. We are also working on Daisy's dog distraction skills as she is very friendly and loves saying 'hello' to other dogs, but it is crucial she remains focused on us when out and about. We are sure that with continued practice and training she will improve her focus and realise we are much more interesting than any other distraction!

Sand pit fun

So far, we have visited a variety of places such as shopping centres, supermarkets and coffee shops. Daisy takes everything in her stride and isn't at all worried by traffic noise.

Her favourite place we've been together is the seaside. We have a sand pit at home that she loves playing in and to Daisy, the beach was just a huge sand pit! She had tons of fun digging and playing in the sand which made us so happy to see.

After a busy day, Daisy loves to cuddle up with us and her favourite soft toy, a dog called Bear. However, it's not long before she is ready to play again! Daisy loves going for free runs in the local woods with another guide dog puppy, Scott, who stayed with us whilst his Puppy Walker went away on holiday.

Next time

Now that Daisy is a bit older we can start exploring new places and even try some public transport together. We are planning to take her on a train journey soon!

Thank you so much for sponsoring Daisy. We can't wait to update you on how she is getting on in your February Pupdate.
